

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA TO HOST 2010 ITA NATIONAL MEN'S TEAM INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIP

16 of the Top Teams Will Compete at the Boar's Head Sports Club Feb. 12 – 15

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. – The matchups have been set for the 16 teams competing in the 2010 Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) National Men's Team Indoor Championships. The University of Virginia will host the 36th annual Championships at the Boar's Head Sports Club in Charlottesville, Va.

Of the fifteen No.1 seeds participating in the second-annual ITA Division I Kick-Off Weekend competition, 13 have advanced with an opportunity to capture the elusive National Team Indoor Championship title. Alabama, Baylor, Florida, Fresno State, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisville, Mississippi, Ohio State, Stanford, Tennessee, Texas, UCLA and USC will join host and two-time defending champion Virginia.

The championships will take place at the Boar's Head Sports Club, which is recognized as one of the top 50 tennis resorts in the U.S, named VA club of the year in 2005, and received recognition from TennisResorts.com as one of the top 75 tennis resorts in the world. The BHSC boasts 10 Hartru outdoor courts, four outdoor hard courts and twelve state of the art indoor courts.

"The ITA is delighted to return to the Boar's Head Sports Club, marking the second time in two years that the University of Virginia has hosted an ITA National Championship," said Executive Director, David A Benjamin. "I know that all of our varsity student-athletes are looking forward greatly to participating in this event."

The Boar's Head Sports Club is an ideal setting for the championship, as the club features 12 DecoTurf indoor courts, including six in the stadium with seating for 1,200 fans. The facility is the indoor home of the Virginia tennis teams and has also hosted the 2008 ITA National Indoor Individual Championships and events on the USTA Challenger Circuit.

Come out and see the best in varsity college tennis for four days at the Boar's Head Sports Club. Admission is free.
